O'Neill Goes Wrong When Green Seal Outruns Juggler in Mile and thereto. a Sixteenth at the Fair Grounds. Weight Too Much for Horse.

New Orleans, March 5.-The fastest sixteenth in 1:45 2-5, equaling the track record, and upsetting a tremendous coup of Burlew and O'Neill. Juggle, who was second, was looked upon as a certainty by the Burlew and O'Neill people, and many heavy commissions were transmitted back into the local ring from New York. Green Seal was in receipt of a lot of weight which won her the race. A. W. Fox to Give Exhibition.

Washington players will be entertained, as well as instructed, in the art of chess at the local headquarters this evening.

An invitation is extended to all lovers of the game to take part in a simultaneous exhibition against A. W. Fox, whose fame as a chess expert is well known in Europe, as well as on this continent. This young player will be remembered for his brilliant style of chess when residing in this city a few years ago. Since then he has added to his reputation, and he may be expected to rival the excellent displays at the Chess Club this winter. Intending participants are requested to be on hand at 8 p. m., at the rooms of the Chess Club, 613 Twelfth street northwest.

Des Moines, March 5.-It is quite probable that the date of the opening of the season in the Western League will be changed, as a number of the clubs cannot possibly get into shape to start the season by April 15, the present date. It will probably be moved to the neighbor-hood of April 25, as this satisfies most of the teams. Lincoln and Des Moines are the clubs most anxious for a change.

Draper, All-American Tackle, Will Be Allowed to Again Play.

Philadelphia, March 5.-D. W. Draper the unanimous choice of the football critics for All-American tackle last fall, was yesterday declared eligible by the University of Pennsylvania faculty athletic committee to represent the Red and Blue on the gridiron again next fall, on and after October 22. Draper's case is one of the most perplexing that has ever come before the committee, and their decision is the result of several weeks' consideration and study of the big tackle's ecord and of the eligibility rules relating

The whole trouble was in deciding whether Draper had already completed his four years of college football. He played one year at Swarthmore and then spent two at Springfield Training School, where he also played football, but this time of the season was recorded to-day does not count as college football. NEW RECORD FOR 300 MILES.

Fiat Cyclone Car Goes at Rate of Seventy-five an Hour.

Ormond, Fla., March 5 .- Driving at an average speed of better than 75 miles per hour, E. Cedrino, in the 60-horsepower Fiat cyclone, drove 300 miles on the sand course to-day in 3:53:44. It is a new world's record for the distance.

It was in the race originally scheduled for 288 miles, but cut down to 256, that Cedrino made his fast time. After winning the race in 3:21:27 2-5, the plucky fellow continued on for the 300-mile record.

The race was over the full 16-mile
